

First Announcement

CanQueue 2013

The 15-th Annual conference for Canadian Queueing Theorists and Practitioners

August 23 – 24, 2013

University of Waterloo, Waterloo, Ontario, Canada

Following the success of fourteen previous conferences held in geographically diverse locations across Canada, from Winnipeg (1999), London (2000), Waterloo (2001), Saskatoon (2002), Toronto (2003), Kelowna (2004), Hamilton (2005), Banff (2006), Halifax (2007), Ottawa (2008), Windsor (2009), Winnipeg (2010), Banff (2011), to London (2012), the 15-th CanQueue meeting will be held in Waterloo, August 23-24, 2013.

The CanQueue conference started from a workshop organized by Dr. A.S. Alfa at the University of Manitoba, in 1999. The name "CanQueue" was suggested and used at the meeting in London, Ontario, in 2000. The goal of the conference is to promote research and applications of queueing theory. The annual conference provides a forum where scientists, researchers, engineers, executives and students in the field meet to exchange research ideas and to discuss work-in-progress.

You are invited to participate this meeting!
